WORK IN PROGRESS:

- Brazil/Canada Knowledge Exchange: developing transnational literacies. Three year SSHRC-funded partnership development grant (2011-2014).
- Deputy Director and co-investigator on a SSHRC-funded MCRI project “Globalization and Autonomy” (2002-09). 8 volumes have been published. I am now co-authoring the final, capstone volume for the series: Globalization and Autonomy: Conversing Across Disciplines [with William D. Coleman and Louis Pauly]. This book is substantially completed in draft form. Expected completion date: Late fall 2011.
- Book MS in production at WLU press. Co-editor, with Marta Dvořák of the Sorbonne Nouvelle, of Crosstalk: Canadian and Global Imaginaries in Dialogue. Brydon and Dvorak have co-authored the Introduction. Brydon’s chapter, “Negotiating Belonging in Global Times: the Hérouxville Debates,” serves as the book’s conclusion. The ms was submitted to Wilfrid Laurier University Press in February 2010 and received two very positive reports in May 2011. ASPP funding on the basis of the reports was announced in Sept 2011 and the production schedule was begun immediately.
- North American representative on the interregional, intercultural, interdisciplinary steering group (of 8) for a four-year team project, “Building Global Democracy,” directed by Jan Aart Scholte at Warwick/LSE, which has core funding from the Ford Foundation of one million US$. Participation in the first coordinating meeting in April 2008; second meeting at the World Social Forum in Belem, Brazil, in Jan/Feb 2009; “Conceptualizing Global Democracy,” December 2009 (Cairo); “Citizen Learning for Global Democracy,” September 2010 (New Delhi); World Social Forum (Dakar,

- Senegal) February 2011; “Including the Excluded in Global Politics,” April 2011 (Rio de Janeiro). Plans are underway for “Structural Redistribution for Global Democracy” in South Africa in 2012 as we await news of our most recent funding applications. Details available at www.buildingglobaldemocracy.org
- “Modes and models of postcolonial cross-disciplinarity.” Contracted chapter for the Oxford Handbook of Postcolonial Studies, ed. Graham Huggan (Oxford University Press). It has received the editor’s approval. I will lightly revise to update in Dec 2011. Forthcoming in 2012.
 - Submitted for external review in May 2010: “‘Difficult Forms of Knowing’: Enquiry, Injury, and Translocated Relations of Postcolonial Responsibility.” Revised conference paper submitted for publication in the ASNEL conference proceedings.
 - Submitted in January 2010. Edward Baugh lecture for publication in a booklet with the previous two Edward Baugh distinguished lectures.
